

Write Your Way to Money

There are several scholarships that many students do not enter because they require writing. If you enter these scholarships, you improve your odds of being selected because competition is less. As one of our students who attended our workshops told me recently, she wrote and entered several competitions in the Fall 2018 semester and earned a $5,000 scholarship.

If you are a Tennessee State University student, you also have the resource of the TSU Writing Center, located in room 310, Student Success Center, also known as the LRC.

You can register at <https://tnstate.mywconline.com> ; use your TSU email address and Tnumber when you register the first time. Then, you can make an appointment in the TSU Writing Center with one of our writing tutors.

You can also sign up for a scholarship coaching session with Mr. Mike Turner, where we will look for scholarships and money for your major or your career goals.

If you have any questions, you can contact Mr. Turner at mjturner@tnstate.edu.

“Your story will inspire the future. Tell us about an African-American who inspired you and you could earn a $5,000 or $3,500 college scholarship in celebration of Black History Month and those who have inspired the next generation to make history.

WRITE YOUR ESSAY

Choose the African-American you want to write about. It could be someone famous, a relative or a person you know. Just make sure the individual inspires and motivates you. For guidance, review the “How to Enter” instructions and the “Contest Judging Criteria” in sections 4 and 5 of the Official Rules, and be sure your essay is 500 words or less. You can write your essay directly in the application or you can copy and paste it into the appropriate area in the application form.

REVIEW AND SUBMIT

Review your information, check your essay for spelling and submit your entry by 11:59:59 p.m. Central Time on February 28, 2019.

$1,000 Village Bakery Aspire-To-Be Scholarship Program, D: July 31, 2019

Selected criteria from webpage:

“Under this program, Village Bakery will award one scholarship each year in the amount of $1,000. The amount will be paid directly to the recipient of the scholarship during the last week of August. This scholarship is aimed at providing supplemental help to students who are looking to pursue a college education; particularly students who are looking to run their own business one day.

Eligibility Requirements:

To be considered for this scholarship, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

- Applicant must be at least 18 years old as of the application deadline
- Currently enrolled in high school, secondary school, or University
- Be an outstanding student, with a proven GPA of 2.5 or above
- Have a career goal of running their own business

All applicants are to submit a 2,000 word essay to scholarship@village-bakery.com. The topic of the essay is ‘what fuels your drive to succeed’. We all dream of big things when we’re growing up. These dreams shape the decisions that we make, and ultimately who we become. For us at Village Bakery, we dreamed of making a life from our passion for cooking. There is no topic off limit – so if you want to write about you and your Grandmother baking bread in a bread maker or you and your Father making waffles in a waffle maker or working hard to buy the best kitchen products, go ahead – just make sure it ties back to the overall theme of ‘what fuels your drive to succeed’

The essays must be submitted as a .doc or .docx.

Applicants must also provide a CV/Resume and proof of being a student (i.e. copy of Student ID, transcript, etc).”

SKIP THE ADS! (Some of the ads are legitimate, but sadly I can't vouch for them all. Avoid the single mom or single dad scholarships—I and a few other students have received calls, and some of the operators are not scrupulous, trying to pressure students in pursuing degrees at for-profit colleges and to take on heavy student loans.

They often ask very extensive, very invasive questions if you sign up for them, in order to give that information to marketers.)
